Code of Conduct for Participants - INSPIRE -

August 19, 2020

Dear Participant,

Thank you for signing up to participate in INSPIRE Cohort 2 conducted by the Gopalakrishnan-Deshpande Centre for Innovation & Entrepreneurship (GDC), IIT Madras. This program is being conducted by GDC for select teams of HTIC, IIT Madras intending to submit a proposal to BIRAC under their BIG scheme.

As a participant in the INSPIRE program, we request that you agree to a set of guidelines as we engage over the next few weeks. We recommend that you use these guidelines as the basis for the relationship you are about to develop with GDC, instructors, mentors, and other participants in the INSPIRE cohort.

CONFIDENTIALITY

1. Every participant shall always maintain as confidential, all ideas, data, information, products, or materials that have been disclosed or shared by any other participant in the cohort over the course of the program.
2. At no time will a participant of any given team disclose any information of any other team in the cohort to any person who is not part of the INSPIRE cohort or HTIC.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

1. Every participant shall respect all intellectual property rights that belong to any other person or team in the cohort, regardless of whether the intellectual property rights are registered (including pending applications for the same).
2. No participant of any team shall have any claim to any data or information in any form belonging to any other team in the cohort.
3. A participant shall not use any ideas, products or materials that belong to another team in the cohort in any manner or disclose them to any third party without the express prior permission of the owner.

I have read and understood the Code of Conduct for Participants for GDC's INSPIRE program and agree to abide by the same.
